VOL. 11.

FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1861.

NO. 39.

THE TRI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH
Will be published every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, by A. G. HODGES & COMPANY,
at FOUR DOLLARS PER ANNUM, payable in advance.

THE WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH, a large mammoth sheet, is published every Tuesday morning at TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM, in advance.
Our terms for advertising, either in the Tri-Weekly or Weekly Commonwealth, will be as liberal as in any of the newspapers published in the west.

The Frankfort Commonwealth.

A. G. HODGES & CO., PROPRIETORS.

J. H. JOHNSON, Editor.

The Proprietors of the Commonwealth, grateful for the generous patronage which has been bestowed upon them, are determined to furnish their patrons a journal which shall be unequalled in any of the departments which comprise a first class newspaper.

Published at the Capital of the State, it will be enabled to furnish its readers with the latest intelligence of the actions of the higher courts and of the various departments of the State. It will also contain the latest telegraphic news of stirring events, and also of the New York, Cincinnati, Louisville and New Orleans markets.

In politics the Commonwealth will be conservative, occupying a middle and antagonistic ground in reference to the two extremes. The old parties broken up, and old issues virtually dead, the vital question at present is Union or disunion. The Commonwealth is for the Union, believing it to be the greatest safeguard for our rights, as well as our most effective auxiliary in our efforts to obtain redress for our wrongs. Its conductors do not regard disunion as a remedy for any of the wrongs of the South, but rather an aggravation. It will contend for the equality of the States in the Union, and for the absolute non-interference by Congress with the domestic affairs of the States and Territories.

We shall aim to make the Commonwealth an acceptable and appropriate fireside companion. It will contain selections from the choicest literature of the day, prose, poetry, &c.

The Weekly will be printed on extra double medium paper, in new and beautiful type.
Terms, in advance, for the Tri-Weekly, $4 per annum.
Terms, for the Weekly $2 per annum.

AYER'S

Ague Cure,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache, or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this disease must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this baleful distemper. This "CURE" expels the miasmatic poison of FEVER and AGUE from the system and prevents the development of the disease, if taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of every body; and in bilious districts, where FEVER and AGUE prevails, every body should have it and use it freely both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinine or mineral, consequently it produces no quinine or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not alone the consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, can be cured by the use of this remedy.

When the intermittent type, or become periodic. This "Cure" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be exerted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure, and few will ever suffer from Intermittents, if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

FOR ALL THE PURPOSES OF A FAMILY PHYSIC,

as so composed that disease within the range of their action can rarely withstand or evade them. Their penetrating properties search, and cleanse, and correct the impurities of the human organism, restoring its diseased action, and restoring its healthy vitality. As a consequence of these properties, the invalid who is bowed down with pain or physical debility is astonished to find his health and energy restored by a remedy at once so simple and inviting.

Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of every body, but also many formidable and dangerous diseases. The agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing certificates of their cures and directions for their use in the following complaints: Constipation, Heartburn, Headache arising from disordered Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Pain in the Stomach, the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Jaundice, and other kindred complaints, arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions. They are an excellent alternative for the renovation of the blood and the restoration of tone and strength to the system debilitated by disease.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease.

So wide is the field of its usefulness and so numerous are the cases of its cures, that almost every section of country abounds in persons publicly known, who have been restored from alarming and even desperate diseases of the lungs by its use. When once tried, it is impossible to give up any other medicine of its kind, no apparent to escape observation, and where its virtues are known, the public no longer hesitate what antidote to employ for the distressing and dangerous affections of the pulmonary organs which are incident to our climate. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted that can never be forgotten, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. WHITAKER—Military Affairs—A bill to provide for the security of the arms of the State, and the protection of railroads: the bill was read the first time, as follows:

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That the Military Board, created at the last session of the Legislature, are hereby authorized to order into the custody of said board any State arms which may have been given out under the act creating said board, or under any other law of the State, whenever said board shall deem it expedient to do so; said board shall have like power over accoutrements and ammunition of the State.

2. If any person shall wilfully fail or refuse to return any of said property for forty-eight hours after the receipt of the order of the board to that effect, he shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and fined in an amount not less than $1,000, nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned until the fine is paid, and the arms, or other property is returned; and said board is authorized to retake said property, and for that purpose to sue in the name of the Commonwealth.

3. If any person shall remove, conceal, or dispose of any of the property mentioned in the first section of this act so as to knowingly prevent or hinder the return thereof, or to hinder or prevent the State from retaking such property, he shall be guilty of a felony, and, on conviction thereof, confined in the penitentiary not less than one, nor more than two years.

4. Said board is authorized to provide for the protection and security of all the property of the State mentioned in this act and the railroads in this State, and to that end may employ a police force, at the cost of the State, that may, in the discretion of the board, be sufficient for the purpose.

JOINT RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. READ offered the following joint resolutions, which were ordered to be printed, and referred to the committee on Federal Relations, viz:

Whereas, The State of Kentucky views with horror the present fratricidal war that seems to threaten the very existence of human and religious liberty, and which has a tendency to fasten the chains of a military despotism upon a once happy and prosperous people.

And, whereas, she has used every effort to avert civil war within her borders and in the nation, and views civil war as a remedy not calculated to secure the liberties of the States and people, but upon the other hand to destroy them; and, she being anxious to avert and arrest the unnatural conflict, and to secure once more the much wanted peace of our State and beloved country to its original constitutional status and purity;—therefore,

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That we recommend to all the States, both North and South, and to the Federal and Confederate Governments, the propriety of calling a Convention to be composed of one delegate from each Congressional District in each State, to meet at Louisville, Ky., on the 1st of September, 1861, for the purpose of taking into consideration the many difficulties and questions that have estranged our people, and for the purpose of settling and terminating the devastating war that is threatening the final overthrow of our once happy and great country.

Resolved further, To meet the objects of the foregoing resolution, we earnestly recommend and request the Federal and Confederate Governments to cause an armistice of ninety days to take place, for the purpose of giving time to consider the questions involved in this most unhappy difficulty.

Resolved, That the Governor be, and he is hereby requested, to transmit immediately to the President of the United States, and the President of the Confederate States, and to the Governors of each of the States, a copy of the foregoing resolutions.

And then the Senate adjourned.

A Voice from Wolfe County.

At a large and respectable meeting of the citizens of Wolfe county, held in the town of Campton, on Monday, the 9th day of September, 1861, without distinction of party, on motion, William Congleton was called to the chair, and H. D. Spradlin appointed secretary. The chairman appointed the following gentlemen a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting, viz: E. P. Hobbs, B. D. Rose, and John R. Brown. Said committee retired, and agreed upon and presented the following set of resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, viz:

1. Resolved, That we seriously deplore the present distracted condition of our country, and look mostly to the interposition of Divine Providence for a peaceful and happy adjustment of our present national difficulties, but, at the same time, we are satisfied that it is our duty to use our utmost exertions, one and all, to have the difficulty settled on terms satisfactory to all loyal citizens of our government, whether of the north or the south.

2. Resolved, That, in our opinion, it is the duty of all citizens to obey and respect the laws of the government under which they live whilst they remain in that government, and that as the State of Kentucky has not seceded from, or rebelled against the government of the United States, we deem it to be the duty of her citizens still to respect and observe the laws and constitution of said government, and any other course taken by her people would, in our opinion, be revolutionary in its character, and would deserve the condemnation of all loyal people and civilized governments.

3. Resolved, That we look to the Constitution of the United States, as formed by the fathers of the revolution, as the palladium of our civil and religious liberty, and believe that from it has emanated all our former and present happiness and prosperity.

4. Resolved further, That we are willing to live and to die under that constitution, whilst the same is administered according to its substantial import and meaning; and we further believe that the said constitution has not as yet proved a failure, but that, if any wrong has been done under color of authority from said instrument, that it has been committed in violation of the same.

5. Resolved, That we believe that the present troubles in our government has been brought about by defeated and dissatisfied politicians, who did not have the good of their country at heart, and said troubles are not chargeable to the common people; and we believe that if the common people could be called on at the ballot-box, that they would speedily settle the matter, and again restore peace to our land and nation; and we earnestly implore leading government officers to propose an adjustment of the matter by having the question submitted to the common people of all the States.

6. Resolved, That, whereas, a short time past a portion of the citizens of Morgan and Wolfe counties held a meeting in the town of Hazlegreen, and passed resolutions declaring that they would not abide by and obey the laws of the United States passed at the last session of Congress, laying a tax on the State of Kentucky for the purpose of carrying on the present war, and for paying the expenses of said government, and also passed resolutions that they would aid any person or persons in carrying property and supplies to aid the Southern Confederacy, (which is in violation of the constitution and laws of the United States) now, be it hereby resolved that we oppose said resolutions, and believe them to be highly rebellious in their character, and further, we say that none of the people of this meeting were present or took part in passing said Hazlegreen resolutions.

7. Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in all newspapers that hold the same sentiment.

Then the meeting adjourned.

Five bundles purporting to be bundles of the Louisville Courier and to consist each of one hundred and sixty copies of that paper were taken in the Courier wagon to the Louisville and Nashville Railroad depot, yesterday, directed to Nashville and Memphis. The detectives thought proper to open the bundles, and found copies of Hardee's Tactics and other military books concealed therein. They also found two letters, the contents of which related to matters of smuggling.

We will not say what persons seem to be implicated. It is a disagreeable case.

[Lou. Swr., 14th.]

Whoever is not prepared to sacrifice party organizations and platforms on the altar of his country does not deserve the support and countenance of honest people. How are we to overcome partisan antipathies in the minds of men of all parties so as to present a united front in support of our country? We must cease discussing party issues, make no allusions to old party tests, have no animosities and recriminations, indulge in no taunts one against the other as to who has been the cause of these troubles.

When we shall have resumed the Government and country from its perils, and seen its flag floating in triumph over every inch of American soil, it will then be time enough to inquire as to who and what has brought these troubles upon us. When we shall have a country and a Government for our children to live in peace and happiness, it shall be time for each of us to return to our party banners according to our own convictions of right and duty. Let him be marked as no true patriot who will not abandon all such issues in times like this.—[Extract from the last Speech of Senator Douglas.]

The Lexington Statesman on the Union.

"We are no Union men. We boast no loyalty to Lincoln's Government, and profess no more love for the Union of the free and slave States. We go even further, and avow that we are not a reconstructionist. There is but one Union which commands the sympathy of our heart and the approval of our judgment, and that is A UNION OF THE SLAVE STATES."

DAILY COMMONWEALTH.

FOR THE SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

The FRANKFORT COMMONWEALTH will be published daily during the approaching session of the General Assembly of Kentucky. A competent reporter will be in attendance in each House, and an accurate report of the proceedings of each day will be given the ensuing morning. The Commonwealth will thus afford the most convenient medium of communication between the members of the Legislature and their constituents, keeping the latter informed not only of the manner in which their own local interests are represented, but of the general course of legislative proceedings, and saving to the former the trouble and labor of a great deal of private correspondence which would otherwise be indispensable. Beside reports of the proceedings of each House of the Kentucky Legislature, the Commonwealth will furnish a summary of all the more important items of the current news of the day, foreign and domestic, war, political and miscellaneous.

The important subjects which will claim the attention of the General Assembly are of vital importance to all the citizens of the State of Kentucky, and we shall hope to receive a large list of subscribers to our Daily paper.

The DAILY COMMONWEALTH, for the session, will be $1 50. Any person procuring us five subscribers, and forwarding the money, shall have the sixth copy for his trouble.

The TRI-WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH is published at $4 per year. The Session Daily will be sent to all the Tri-Weekly subscribers, with 50 cents additional charge. Any person procuring us five subscribers to the Tri-Weekly, and forwarding us the money, shall have the sixth copy for his trouble.

The WEEKLY COMMONWEALTH will be furnished to subscribers, during the session of the Legislature, for 50 cents; and for a year, including the session, for $2 00. Persons procuring five subscribers to the session weekly, or yearly weekly, and forwarding the money to us, shall receive the sixth copy free of charge.

Remittances may be made by mail at our risk.

Letter from Mercer County.

MERCER CO., KY., Sept. 11, 1861.

Since the unprovoked invasion of Kentucky by the Confederate forces, the feelings of the Union men of this section has become more intensified than ever against the nefarious effort now in progress to overthrow that mild and beneficent government which has given to us heretofore peace and prosperity with national character, power and glory. The prevailing sentiment now is, that by the act of the Confederates themselves, Kentucky neutrality is at an end, and whatever relief it may have afforded, amidst civil war, to either North or South, or to the citizens of the State itself. Patriotic Kentucky, like a lofty monument upon the summit of the western hills, was the first to receive the genial rays of the glorious sun of Union when it rose upon our land, after a tempestuous preceding night of Confederacy and of anarchy; and it was appropriate that here, too, those beams should linger latest gilding, with their gentle radiance, the last spot where former freedom, personal security and kindly fraternal feeling still remained. And now, that the rushing storm-cloud of another dark and dreary night of confederate anarchy has shut out the last twinkling star of hope, the Union men heretofore ready to meet the crisis as becomes men and patriots.

They feel that the time for temporizing is past, and that with that peaceful neutrality, which the rebels have themselves destroyed, all toleration, courtesy or consideration for those who have brought these evils upon us, must also forever pass away. They cannot, therefore, but feel indignant that the Legislature should have descended so far from its proper position, as to have suspended its own momentous and pressing duties, and granted the use of the Capitol building for a Convention of the insidious spies and traitors and sympathizers with rebellion, who have been the chief agents in bringing about the present deplorable crisis. The seeming countenance and consideration which is thus given to these men in concocting their traitorous schemes to divide Kentucky into beligerent factions, and to embarrass the proper, patriotic action of the State, will unquestionably tend to forward their designs.

It is the decided and unanimous opinion of the Union men here, that after the clear and unequivocal evidence which Kentucky has given of her unalterable determination to remain faithful to the government of our fathers, every citizen who has the slightest regard for the interests of the State, or for the "State rights," of which so many loudly talk, should firmly and unflinchingly sustain the State in the position she has taken. It is also their decided conviction that the most energetic measures should be at once adopted to arrest and punish every individual who creates and promotes a factions opposition to the known will of the State, or who, in any other manner, affords aid and comfort to those infuriated and fanatical enemies who have lawlessly invaded our territory and taken possession of our towns. The Rubicon is now passed. Kentucky must rise in her strength, and not only drive these invaders from her soil, but teach them, in their own territory, to fear and to respect the power of that National Government, which, in their desperation and madness, they seek to overthrow.

In order to accomplish anything effective at such a moment, and against so vigilant and prompt an enemy, the most decisive measures are needed. It is well remarked by M. L. Biane, that "in times of struggle, audacity is prudence, for in a revolution confidence has all the advantages of chance." Our enemies have all along acted upon this philosophy and proved its truth. They forced an ordinance of secession from the Virginia Convention, which, pro forma, referred the question to the people, and then, without awaiting their decision, invited Confederate troops to occupy the State, and make open war upon the National Government! They now first invade Kentucky, and after taking possession of our towns, send Commissioners to amuse the Legislature with diplomacy, to ferret out the movements of the government, and to gain time for further enterprises! Let those who manage our affairs beware! An indignant people will hold them to a severe account, if with all their present knowledge of the character of this rebellion, and of the bold and unscrupulous methods its advocates employ to gain their ends, they nevertheless suffer them, for want of prompt action, to plunge Kentucky into the condition of Missouri.

A LOYAL CITIZEN.

Letter from Boone County.

Judge Nuttall on Lincoln guns, sheep stealing, and oaths.

BURLINGTON, KY., Sept. 11, 1861.

Editor Commonwealth: On Monday last Judge Nuttall, in the discharge of his official duties, opened the full term of the Boone circuit court. After charging the grand jury, he adjourned for dinner.

At two o'clock, after the ringing of the court house bell and public outcry, he proceeded to make one of his characteristic speeches, in which he trailed his official ermine in the filth and slough of disunionism, and placed himself on the lowest level of the partisan demagogue, and yet he is the highest judicial functionary of our country—the first conservator of her peace. On that occasion he gave utterance to language and opinions which stamp him one of the most shameless and unscrupulous of the hoard of official disorganizers of the day with whom our State is cursed. As a whole his speech was below criticism, or even contempt, were it not for the inculcation of the most atrocious and disloyal sentiments, uttered in utter disregard of all the moral obligations ordinarily held sacred by mankind. I give you a specimen: Speaking of the tender of arms to the loyal men of Kentucky, to be used only in defense of their homes and little ones, he said he would rather be indicted, convicted and punished for sheep stealing than caught with one of "Lincoln's guns" on his shoulder, and yet, he said, in the same connection, that he would take the oath of allegiance to obtain one of the guns if he knew, by so doing, he could kill five, six or ten of the enemy. (meaning, thereby, those who maintain their allegiance and integrity.) He would not, however, take the oath to secure or merely kill one man. The oath, he said, he would take or not, as it suited his convenience. It was not a legal one, nor would he hesitate to disregard it, as it was not binding in law or conscience or good morals.

"O, that a whip was put in every honest man's hand to scourge the rascal naked 'round the world."

Official Report of Gen. Rosecrans.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—The following is Gen. Rosecrans' official report:

CAMP SCOTT, Sept. 11, P. M.

To Col. E. D. Townsend: Yesterday marched 17½ miles and reached the enemy's entrenched position in front of Cornix Ferry, driving his advanced outside and pickets before us. We found him occupying a strong entrenched position, covered by a forest too dense to admit of its being seen at a distance of 300 yards. His force was seven regiments besides the one driven in. At 3 o'clock we began a strong reconnaissance, which proceeded to such length that we were about to assault the position on the flank and front, when night coming on, our troops being completely exhausted, I drew them out of the woods and posted them in order of battle behind ridges, immediately in front of the enemy's position, where they rested on their arms till morning. Shortly afterwards a runaway contraband came in and reported that the enemy had crossed the Gauley during the night by means of the ferry and a bridge which they had completed.

Col. Erving was ordered to take possession of the camp, which he did at about 7 o'clock, capturing a few prisoners, two stand of colors, a considerable quantity of arms, with Quartermasters' stores, messing and camp equipage.

The enemy has destroyed the bridge across the Gauley, which here goes through a deep gorge and our troops being still much fatigued, and having no material for immediately replacing the bridge, it was thought prudent to encamp the troops and occupy the Ferry and captured camp, sending a few rifled cannon shots after the enemy to produce a moral effect. Our loss will probably amount to 20 killed and 100 wounded. The enemy's loss not ascertained, but from reports it must have been considerable.

(Signed) W. S. ROSECRANS.

"Are you in favor of war? No, but I am in favor of putting down war by force of arms. I am opposed to war, and in favor of obtaining peace by putting down the authors of the war. I am in favor of peace, and I am in favor of the only course that will insure it—driving out armed Rebellion and negotiating with loyalty."

[D. S. Dickinson.]

Kentucky never had such a body of military men within her borders as the State Guard.—Loc. Jour.

And God willing she will never have another "such."

SEIZURE OF MORE GUNS.—Inspectors Higdon and Dillard, under a search warrant, arrested forty-five muskets last night at a house in Portland, and delivered them at the custom-house about midnight. With these arms were taken the same number of muskets and other accoutrements complete, and a thousand rounds of ball cartridges. When other parties are so remiss in the performance of their duty, it is well that the United States Government has an officer directing operations here who manifests both energy and determination. In the course of the afternoon yesterday several small lots of guns were taken under similar warrants by the Inspectors of customs. The Captain of the Portland company, we understand, conducted himself during the arrest of the forty-five guns first mentioned, with the utmost propriety.—Loc. Jour.

Letter from Amos Kendall.

The following is taken from a letter addressed by Amos Kendall to the Democrats of Connecticut. It will be read with interest by his old friends in Kentucky:

You will agree with me that our country is at war. Whether we consider the southern States a foreign power or their people as our fellow-citizens in a state of rebellion, still our country is at war with them. If it is this war to be brought to a close? By one or two modes, either by a suppression of the rebellion or by a treaty acknowledging the independence of the Confederate States. Is there any Democrat who would not rejoice to see the armed resistance to the Government suppressed, peace restored, and business resuming its wonted channels? Or, if there be any Democrat who thinks it impossible to suppress the rebellion, still will he not stand by his own section and enable it to obtain the best terms it can on the final separation? In whatever aspect the Democrats of the North may look at this subject their interests and duty alike require them to support their Government in an energetic prosecution of the war. How else can the rebellion be suppressed? Or, if that be impracticable, how else can an honorable and advantageous treaty of peace be obtained?

But attempts are made to paralyze the Government by the cry of peace, and to get up a peace party under the name of Democracy! PEACE ON WHAT TERMS? Are the leaders of this movement in favor of peace on whatever terms our rebel enemies may prescribe? Are they prepared to let the white slaves of "King Cotton" tread upon their necks and be content to live dishonored lives in the homes of their brave ancestors? Why do not these men, while casting their peace flags to the breeze, announce the terms on which they propose to make peace? Why do they not tell us what reason they have to believe that peace can be made on any terms, other than by cowardly submission to rampant rebellion? This peace flag, if not the traitor's is the coward's flag. Whatever its design, it is traitorous in the eye. It gives "aid and comfort" to the enemy.

Those who are attempting to aid the enemy by this and other devices, call themselves Democrats. I DENY THEIR RIGHT TO THE NAME! I have witnessed the mutinies of parties and been a Democrat myself for more than fifty years. There were no such Democrats in Jefferson's days. There were none such during the war with Great Britain in 1812 to 1814. The peace party was then the Federal party, which was so effectually disgraced by the peace policy of its leaders, that its members ever after found it necessary to rally under other names. There were no such Democrats in Jackson's days. "The Federal Union must be preserved" was then the Democratic motto, and "down with nullification and secession" was the Jacksonian Democratic battle cry. There was no such Democracy during the Mexican war. There is none such, now in the heads or hearts of true Democrats; in my own heart there is none and never was; if there were, I would tear it out.

The Democratic party has, for half a century, witnessed the rise and fall of many other parties, always maintaining the honor of its name. Its vital principle has been devotion to the Constitution and the Union. But for the wanton rebellion of the Cotton States, it would now be the ruling party in Congress and the country. You call the Southern conspirators our brothers. So was Cain Abel's brother. Shall we stop and cry peace while the club of the fratricide is aimed at our heads and his bow-knife at our throats? Shall our unresisting blood cry from the ground for vengeance against murderers worse than Cain—murderers who would kill a nation in the persons of their brothers—traitors not only to their country, but to the cause of liberty in all time and throughout the world?

Democrats! No, they are no Democrats. The shades of Jefferson and Jackson disown them. They mistake their proper name, and their true home. They are the WHITE SLAVES OF KING COTTON, and their true home is in its presence. Let them go to the Cotton States and plant their peace flags in the presence of their King. Let them get up a peace party THERE, who are willing to live in peace under our benign Constitution, and they will then be responded to by all true Democrats of the North.

Some men, in their zeal for party, seem to forget that they have a country, and that the President, to whatever party he may belong, is the representative of that country. What if you or I do not like some of the principles of Mr. Lincoln or approve of the means by which he is elected? Still he is our country's President, and to sustain our country in its present conflict, we must sustain him. What, if in discharge of the tremendous responsibilities which devolve upon him, he sometimes exercises doubtful powers or violates the letter of the law, shall we therefore abandon the cause of our country by withholding from him the men and money necessary for its defense? Shall we go further, espouse the cause of the enemy and throw every possible obstruction in the way of our own Government? If so the traitor's doom and the hangman's halter would be our just reward. Let us save our country first, and then call its rulers to account for any unnecessary usurpation of power. It is madness in the crew of a sinking ship to deprive their commander of the power to save it. It is madness to quarrel about the Administration of our Government until we make sure that we shall still have a Government to administer.

General Fremont to be superseded by Quartermaster General Meigs.

New York, Sept. 13.—The Commercial Advertiser has the following: "We learn that a rumor was prevalent in Washington yesterday that General Fremont is to be superseded in his command, and that Quartermaster General Meigs is to take his place. We have also that we deem good authority for saying that this rumor, unlike many others, is founded on fact, and that Mr. Blair, at whose earnest recommendation Gen. Fremont was placed where he is, is accompanied by Gen. Meigs in order to explain to Gen. Fremont the reasons and the necessity for this step. It will be found, we think, that these reasons are that Gen. Fremont exceeded his authority by the proclamation he issued—that being the main reason—and that he has in other respects acted in important matters not only without consulting the Government, but in contravention of its orders and practice."

GEN. ANDERSON'S STAFF.—The following gentlemen compose the staff of Gen. Robert Anderson: Maj. R. Murray, Surgeon; Capt. H. C. Symonds, Commissary; Capt. O. D. Grune, Assistant Adjutant General; Capt. E. Prime, Engineer; C. B. Throckmorton, Lieut. Aid; Capt. Hancock, Quartermaster. They have all reported at headquarters in Louisville, with the exception of Capt. Hancock, the Quartermaster, who has not arrived.

Cephalic Pills

CURE

Sick Headache

CURE

Nervous Headache

CURE

All kinds of Headache

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack, immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache for which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels—removing Constipation.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

DO YOU WANT A MUSTACHE?

Bellingham's celebrated Stimulating Ointment for the Whiskers and Hair.

THE STIMULATING OINTMENT is prepared by Dr. C. P. Bellingham, an eminent physician of London, and warranted to bring out a thick set of WHISKERS OR A MUSTACHE in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure baldness and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn red or tow hair dark, and restore gray hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth, and flexible. The "Ointment" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all Druggists and Dealers; or a box of the "Ointment," (warranted to have the desired effect) will be sent to any who desire it, by mail (direct), securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1.15. Apply to, or address,

A Practical Treatise for the use of Justices of the Peace, Constables,
Sheriffs, Jailers, and Coroners in Kentucky.

By RICHARD H. STANTON, MAYSVILLE, KY.

THIS NEW WORK, WHICH HAS been prepared with unusual diligence and care by the author, is intended to be a complete and perfect guide to Justices of the Peace, and the other officers named above, in the discharge of their respective duties under the laws of the state. Its arrangement is such, that while it presents to the officer a full view of the law which he may be called upon to enforce, whether civil or criminal, it affords him such complete and accurate instructions as to the practical manner of discharging his duties, in each particular case, that it will be almost impossible for the least informed among them to go astray.

Every necessary form which a justice of the peace, or other officer may require in the course of his official duties, will be found in its appropriate place in the work; and the instructions are so full, perspicuous and clear, that it will be found an invaluable official companion to those for whom the treatise is intended, and a highly useful work to the legal profession, and all others having business with those officers. The author has spared no labor to make it just such a work as is now most needed by the class of officers whose duties are so fully and clearly explained, and his well known accuracy and success will commend it to the hearty patronage of all persons in Kentucky concerned in the administration of the law.

The work contains six hundred and fifty octavo pages, is printed on fine paper, and with large, clear type, and bound in the very best style. Price, $4 00.
